ANNA HELD GAT ES A FRIGHTENED HORSE.

Knocked from Her Bicycle, She Remounts and Saves Two Lives.

Ex-Judge E. C. Murphy, of Brooklyn, and James H. Ashe Sat Helpless.

With Broken Rein Fluttering in the Breeze the Florse Was Beyond Their Control.

SHE CAUGHT THE DANGLING RIBBON

Runaway Soon Came to a Standstill and the Judge Expressed His Heartfelt Thanks to His Rescuer, Who Was Badly Hurt in Her Fall.

Anna Held changed her bill yesterday. It was her day o'f, as far as the stage is concerned, but she played the part of bereine in one of life's real up-to-date

The dainty chanteuse, while out bicycle riding, was run down by a frightened horse and painfully, though not seriously, turt. A few moments afterward she overtook the runaway and, by skliful riding, aided the steepling him. This pincky act probably saved from scrious accident former Judge E. C. Murphy, of No. 1080 Pacific street, Brooklyn, and James H. Ashe, of Philladelphia, who were occupants of the buggy to which the horse was at-

All this occurred on the driveway to Concy Island at an early hour yesterday morning. Miss Heid, who is an expert wheelwoman, on Saturday night plenned with several of the members of the Herald Square Company, including Manager Zeigfelt and Mr. Evans, to take an early Sun-day ride to Concy baland. They intended to get breakfast there and afterward to inspect the wreckage left by storm and fire

According to appolitment, Manager Zeigfelt called in a carriage for Miss Held at the Hotel Netherland at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. She was dressed and waiting, eager for the ride. When she came lown stairs she appeared to have stepped out of the window of a Parisian dress-nator's shop. Her suit was of a soft white material, with broad binding of black velvet. Four inches of black slik bloomers howed beneath the short white skirt, A thic white crushed hat, with a saucy looking feather stuck on one side, sat jauntly

With their wheels placed behind the driver's seat manager and singer drove to Movement to Join Together All the Mar Brooklyn, where they were to meet the ag at the meet-started, making dly in order to has been practically disrupted since the his been practically disrupted that part, manhattan tracks sight of his dog with the vigorous campaign now being with the vigorous campaign now being made by Delegate Edward McHugh, of the his control of the made by Delegate Edward McHugh, or the made

FOR ONE MARINE UNION.

time Unions of the World.

The effort yesterday to reorganize the

Here let Judge International Federation, whose lone Here let Judge to the said yesterday horse that I thought, a few said to unite the marine trades of the world into one grand association.

Two hundred longshoremen responded yesterday to a histy call for a meeting at the room of the Atlantic Seamen's Union, a cle suddenly dished to cross the road in horse up suddenly over her, and as I rein shapped in two woman was knocked did not have time to not she wis hunt, this time become upsahing down the road only one rein left, I him and I confess lightened, he single rein I was

While Ashe beid the single rein I was rying to climb out on the shaft and get rein to capital except so far as it concerns a fair wage. Such a strike as you mended of the piece of the other rein that has dangling in the breeze that was creed to the rapid pace at which we were roing. While I was trying to reach it I eard a woman's voice call close beside me. I'll get it for you,' and, to my amazement, the woman we had just run into rode longstice the horse, guiding her wheel closestice the horse, guiding her wheel closestice the fluttering piece of rein, limitly she caught it and began to seen as the first was to oppose the fluttering piece of rein, limitly she caught it and began to seen as the horse. I took it away from her ad soon stopped the animal.

"She had to lump off her wheel in order to keep from falling, and I approached her to thank hew She snoke English quite rokenity and I thought that she was a fer man. I offered her my card and asked to the special probability and the she had probably are at some other time, when the excitental artist to make herself known, but mally gave me a card which I thrust into may pocket without looking at it, and hanked her in a confused manner.

"At that moment a gentleman rode app ma wheel and joined her, and Ashe and tayself turned the horse around and drove ack home. When I sat down to break ast I toid my wife about the accident and howed her the young woman's card. Anna Held, Paris, she read, and then except the close of the line of the procedure of the line of the procedure with t and my wife about the accident and her the young woman's card, ledd, Paris, she read, and then exwively, she's the actress who a milk, and not until then did I no my rescuer had been. If my wife he I shall send Miss Held a bunch mue I shall send Miss Held a bunch mue cable road shortly before 6 o'clock last management of the second avenue railroad.

Ill let me I shall send Miss Held a bunch dowers to-morrow night."

The declare," said Manager Zeigfelt last get into the papers. It sounds so much the an advented not believe it if I did not know hat an excellent and daring rider Miss eld is. She is very promit of her ability to be such things on the wheel, and, despite the fact that she was quite palafully hut, to take de catchinastically about stopping the ranaway horse. As soon as I overtook of we waited for the carringe that was bllowing us and drove back to her hotel."

Miss Held's physician, Dr. F. G. Welch, I No. 54 West Fifty-nith street, was him lift indisposed last night, but in reply to nestions sent to his bedroom, he wrote:

"The accelent to Miss Held was not series, and I do not believe will interfere with or professional work."

At the Hotel Netherland the fair patient seelined to see any callers, Her midd, ho speaks nothing but French, explained, trough the head waiter, that mademoiselle ad been struck in the side by the shaft the longry and liadly hut, and that her

When He Tried to Raise the Sack.

Fannie Pancoast's Laughing Face Appeared.

Turned the Joke by Kissing Her.

but He Is the Admirer and Slave of Every Woman.

store. Any room that contains seven young women is a heaven to Street, and these women is a heaven to Street, and these pretty millibers knew it. He enters the store smiling and bowing. He pays comstore smiling and bowing. He pays comstore smiling and bowing. He pays comstant and the store smiling and bowing. He pays comstant and the store smiling and bowing are store smiling and bowing are store smiling and bowing are store smiling and bowing. He pays comstant are smiling and bowing are stored as the store smiling and bowing are stored as the store smiling and bowing are stored as the paper of the eyes. So came.

It lifted the starboard quarter lifeboat out of the shocks and slammed it against the attendant inflammation, she attempts the life paper of the paper of the eyes. So came.

pleasure in tensing old Street. They have H. N. Garrett, two valets and two maids. joked with each other thus:

GAIETY ABOVE DECKS, DEATH WATCH BELOW.

"It's Heavy," Said Street, None of the St. Paul's Merry Passengers Knew Nor Suspected.

The Old Man Turned and Miss So Their Laughter Was Mingled with the Watchers' Prayers for Horatio Garrett.

He Prisoned Her in the Sack and An Evening Concert by Operatic Stars Was One of the Plans of the Gay Party.

Street Is Seventy Years Old and Married, The Purser, Who Usually Manages Such Affairs, Was Discreetly Backward, and So That Affair Fell Through

a gallant old chap. He adores the women, ended last Friday night, none knew that

For a long time old Street has daily between decks a solemn death watch was

La Gascogne ran into rough weather the Forty-first street, is the sufferer. It w

pliments to the milliners, they tease him tober 1. Arrangements were made at once by gravely asking after his wife's health.

Miss Fannie Pancoast is one of the milliners. She is a mighty pretty girl, about and a clergyman accompanied the funeral was flooded and the bot dinner. that was completely only seemed to intensify the pain and agreement was a flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the light pretty girl, about and a clergyman accompanied the funeral was flooded and the bot dinner. The like the light pretty girl, about the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plications of hot cloths steeped in remarkable the promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plications of hot cloths steeped in remarkable the promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths steeped in remarkable the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big promenade deck, sending great to treat herself, but home remedies and an plication of hot cloths at the big liners. Sile is a mighty pretty girl, about and a clergyman accompanied the inhering twenty years old. She is a roguish, coquettwenty years old. She is a roguish, coquettish young woman, and she has taken great. John Garrett, Mrs. T. H. Garrett and Mrs.
The shock sent the steamship heeling to port and dishes rattled like hallstones about.

At the end of the third day Mrs. Copie's

Miss Pancoast—I'm afraid, Mr. Street, draped with crepe and the coffin placed on our eyes are falling.

draped with crepe and the coffin placed on yesterday.

limit the dimensions and appearance of palety in the same in th

The Funeral at Baltimore, Baltimore, Md., Oct. 18,-The body of Horatlo Whitridge Garrett, who died a Leamington Spa. England, on October 1, Leamington Spa. England, on October I, arrived here yesterday morning, and was taken to the family home, Evergreen, on Charles street extended. The funeral took place this afternoon, and was private. Services were held at the house at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Maltby D. Babcock, of Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Dr. J. C. Ecclesion, of Emanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, officiated, Interment was made in the family lot at Green Mount Cemetery. Mr. Garrett's grave is at the foot of that of his father, the late T. Hartison Garrett. There were twenty honorary pall-bearers, all former classmates of Mr. Garrett at Princeton College.

SEA SWEEPS LA GASCOGNE

Kitchen and Spolls the Passengers' Hot Dinner.

One of the starboard lifeboats on the French liner La Gascogne was stove "In" and the promenade deck rall at that point The Street Cleaning Department of VineInd. N. J., is made up of one man. His name is Street—Thomas Street. He is name is Street—Thomas Street. He is Paul on her voyage from Southampton that

For a long time old Street has daily visited J. E. Boynton & Co.'s millinery atore and emptied a big sack of scraps that fall under the scissors of the milliners.

La cascogn ran into rough weather to moment she left Havre. She was running at sixteen knots an hour last Wednesday was first afflicted. On that day her eyelid that fall under the scissors of the milliners.

Sacon round women are employed in the bilss.

When Southampton was reached the body the ears of the frightened kitchen attend. eyes kind awallen to such a size that ther Street (bowing)—Good evening, Miss Fannie I really think you grow prettier every day.

Ween Southampton was reached the body was at once taken aboard the St. Paul. A space between decks was partitioned off.
The deck was covered with carpet, the sides

The deck was covered with carpet, the sides

Miss Pancoast—I'm afraid, Mr. Street, draped with crepe and the coffin placed on two rests and braced so that the motion of the ship could not dislodge it.

Street—I can see you very well, Miss Fancoast (remurely)—I heard this morning your old wife is alling, Mr. Street, I hope it's not true.

At the mention of his wife, the old fellow always picked up the sack and carried it to his cart.

"When he went lato Boynton's store on Saturday, six milliners seemed to be very husy, indeed. Some were trimming bonnets, some were arranging the wares. But aithough he did not know it, all were watching Street when, after his usual compliments, he walked toward the big scrapbag. He took hold of the top of the sack, which were engaged in a death watch. Every morning the whole party would assemble below, and prayers for the dead by gales and head seas up to the time of by gales and head seas up to the time of

The Missing Banker's Alleged Crooked Transactions Extended Over a Period of Twenty Years.

Juneau, Wis., Oct. 18,-No trace has yet been found of W. T. Rambusch, the alleged defaulting banker and real estate man, who has been missing for ten days. The reported defalcations already brought to light reach the sum of $250,000, and those engaged in the work of straightening the books declare the end is not yet. The only assets thus far discovered amount to Rambusch's operations extended over a period of twenty years. He must in that time have handled about $3,000,000 in the work of buying and exchanging mortgages inter and his wife, after his death, continued the practise. Mr. Spence, however, was not of the confiding nature of his wife. On October 8 he came here to learn if the taxes were paid on all of the land on which his wife had advanced money. Mr. Rambusch was out of the city, and he began an investigation on his own account, and found that his suspicious that the mortgages that Rambusch had furnished were bogus, and that the money had been appropriated to his own uses were not unwarranted.

He left a note for Rambusch, saying he wanted to see him at Renver lan trouble with her eyes before, and every him to have some and advanced him to have some and that the money had been appropriated to his own uses were not unwarranted.

He left a note for Rambusch, saying he wanted to see him at Renver lan trouble with her eyes before, and complying the one of the complete said trouble with her eyes before, and every him the other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press old. She other will always be signtless."

Mrs. Copie is fifty four press of the other will always be signtless.

The Reorganized Railroad Will Be Deprived of Old Powers

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.-Plans for the reorganization of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company are now almost complete, and unless hindered by some unforeseen obstacle the property will be formally turned over by the receivers to the new company on December 1, the beginning of When a ba the new fiscal year. The title of the new into this world he the new fiscal year. The fittle of the new company will be the Phindelphia & Readind Railroad Company.

Application will be made for a new charter under the laws of Pennsylvania, which will bring the company within the provisions of the new constitution, and greatly curtail its powers. The most important change, as a result, will be the severance of the coal and iron company from the railroad enipany. Under the broad provisions of the off leading charge, the company of the off leading charge, the company.

UNVEILED BY THE KAISER. Westphalia's Memorial to the Emperor's Illus-

BY INFECTED MONE Extraordinary Affliction Mrs. Joseph Cople, a Brooklyn Woman.

Rubbed Her Eyes After Rece ing a $1 Note from a Customer in Her Restaurant.

EYESIGHT RUINED

Inflammation, Swelling and Intense Pa a Followed and She Is Still Suffering.

SHE IS A ROGUISH MILLINER, BUT NO ONE SEEMED TO START IT. Smashes Lifeboat and Rail, Deluges the ONE EYE TOTALLY DESTROYED

Fears That the Other Will Also Becom Blind, as There Are Only Faint Chances of Saying It.

On the promenade deck two saloon ity, and in her agony Mrs. Cople frequently passengers were knocked flat, but they re-ceived little harm beyond bruised shins.

Only One Eye Now.

NO TRACE OF RAMBUSCH. were finally called. They found the

NEW CHARTER FOR READING. the was taken into the line of that institutions.

peror William L, at Minden, Westphalia, was unveiled to-day by his grand special special vitality to the nerve-centres, makes the coming of baby safe and compared to the period of the morning, was knocked down by a wagon, in which ex-Judge E. C. Murphy, of Brooklyn, and James Ashe, of Philadelphia, were out driving. Though badly hurt, she remounted and, seeing that the horse was beyond his driver's control, one of the reins having broken, she dashed in pursuit, caught the daugling line and brought the frightened animal to a standard. Miss Held was at the time ridings to Coney Island accompanied by her manager, and in her bicycling dress, as will be seen in the illustration, she presented an appearance so different from that when on the stage that the Judge, while thanking her for her courageous act, was unaware of the identity of his rescuer.

MOB CRIED OUT "LYNCH HIM!"

Negro Prisoner Was Saved by the Officer
Only After Great Difficulty.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 18.—Edward
Ways good and industrious."

Street made another attemnt to raise the

of the imagy and findly horr, and findly bell, which breaks breaks breaks breaks and the findle follows are distorted as a break breaks breaks

MURPHY